1. PERNŠTEJN CASTLE

Pernštejn is one of the most fairy-tale castles in the Czech Republic and well worth visiting. It charms both tourists and filmmakers.

Perched above the town of Nedvědice for nearly 800 years, it earned the title “impregnable,” holding out even against Swedish forces in the Thirty Years’ War. Its late Gothic and early Renaissance features show how a medieval fortress became a striking Renaissance residence.

Pernštejn, Nedvědice

HERITAGE SITES

Explore the places that shaped the region. Discover two key chapters of its history – the powerful Pernštejn family and the Cistercian monks of Žďár.

The region is crowned by majestic Pernštejn Castle, once home to one of the most influential families. Nearby, romantic castle ruins nestle in the forest.

Another side of the region appears in the Žďár Cistercian landscape – from the unique Church of St. John of Nepomuk at Zelená Hora to the former monastery with its remarkable basilica.

2. CHURCH AT ZELENÁ HORA

The Pilgrimage Church of St. John of Nepomuk at Zelená Hora in Žďár nad Sázavou, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is the most distinctive work of the brilliant architect Jan Blažej Santini-Aichel.

Its design is based on a five-pointed star, echoed in five entrances, five altar niches, and ten chapels arranged in pairs. A ten-pointed star-shaped ambulatory surrounds the church, sheltering it from the elements.

3. ŽĎÁR NAD SÁZAVOU CASTLE

Discover the 800-year story of a former Cistercian monastery and today's Žďár nad Sázavou castle.

Over the centuries, the monastery changed repeatedly, including destruction during the Hussite Wars. In the early 17th century, it was rebuilt in the Baroque style. Today, the estate is run by the Kinsky family and open to visitors. Its story is presented in the New Generation Museum.

4. KARLŠTEJN HUNTING LODGE

Head to the Žďárské Vrchy near the town of Svatá Kateřina and discover the highest-situated castle in Czechia.

Built in the late 17th century, the hunting lodge is known for its strict symmetry, red facade, and the Chapel of St. Giles. It was first owned by the Kinsky family and later by the Thurn-Taxis dynasty. Today, it offers guided tours and has a small castle inn, with fine views of the surrounding landscape.

5. ZUBŠTEJN CASTLE RUINS

The extensive ruins of this 14th-century castle stand above the village of Pivonice on a prominent rock outcrop at 688 meters above sea level.

Built in the Gothic style by the lords of Medlov (predecessors of the Pernštejn family) as a seat for a separate branch of the family, it now stretches 275 meters long over 1.7 hectares. The castle is a favorite spot for visitors seeking stunning views of the surrounding landscape.

6. SKÁLY CASTLE RUINS

Climb to the top of Štarkov Hill and explore the remains of an ancient castle that guarded the Nové Město region from the 14th century.

Skály Castle, also known as Štarkov, stood on a rocky ridge and used the cliffs to defend its core. Although abandoned in the 15th century, its ruins survive. Visitors can explore the remains of towers, a cistern, ramparts, ditches, and the castle gate. The site is freely accessible.

7. BASILICA OF OUR LADY

The minor Basilica of the Assumption of Our Lady is a Gothic church later rebuilt by Jan Blažej Santini-Aichel.

The basilica is an elongated three-nave structure dating from the second half of the 13th century, and the second longest church in Moravia. Parts of the original early Gothic building survive, including the outer walls of the nave, the transept, and the presbytery. In the early 17th century, Santini made major alterations in the Baroque Gothic style.

HISTORY

Discover the region's rich past and the fascinating stories hidden in its monuments and museum collections.

Museums and galleries reveal local traditions, crafts, and art, showing the daily life of Vysočina inhabitants and the area's technical and industrial heritage. Exploring historical exhibits and sites lets you peek into their lives, secret corners, and the world that shaped the Vysočina landscape.

Visiting these places gives you a complete picture of the region's development and cultural history.

8. MUSEUM OF HORÁCKO

The Museum of Horácko is located on Vratislav Square, in the heart of the historic zone of Nové Město na Moravě, in the 16th-century Renaissance town hall.

The exhibitions showcase folk culture of northern Horácko, glassmaking and ironworking. You can also see displays on ski production, set in a First Republic carpentry workshop, as well as a classroom from the same period.

13. TATRA VETERAN MUSEUM

Step back to the days when Tatra cars ruled the roads and the smell of petrol was part of the adventure.

The Tatra Veteran Museum in Bystřice nad Pernštejnem, located in a former distillery near the town square, offers a glimpse into automotive history. Visitors can see classic Tatra cars, Jawa and ČZ motorcycles, pedal cars, and related memorabilia. The collection reflects life in Czechoslovakia from the 1920s to the 1980s.

TRADITIONS

Discover the traditions of Vysočina, which still enliven local life and reflect the region's rich cultural past.

Rural houses, workshops, and craft studios take you into the world of glassmakers, blacksmiths, and other artisans whose skills were passed down through generations.

You can experience these traditions and crafts at a glassworks, the Eden Centre, the Glassmaster's House, or on walks through Krátká, Křižánky, and Jimramov, where history still blends with the everyday lives of local people.

15. U HROCHA GLASSWORKS

Handmade glassmaking is on the UNESCO list, and in the Koruna Vysočina destination you can still watch master glassmakers at work.

At U Hrocha Glassworks, they continue the famous Škrdlovice glassmaking tradition and focus on glass tourism. Visitors can see glass crafted by hand under a master's guidance. By prior arrangement, you can try glassmaking and create your own piece. A shop sells glass products.

16. EDEN CENTRE

A hub of knowledge and inspiration, the Eden Centre combines a manor courtyard, a Horácko village, and an eco-pavilion. You can spend a whole day here. The exhibitions are designed to engage all the senses. At Eden, history blends with the future, giving visitors a chance to explore the past and glimpse what lies ahead.

Eden Centre focuses on families with children, but its varied grounds offer enjoyment for all visitors.

21. IRON-MILLING ŠLAKHAMR

A unique industrial monument of the Technical Museum in Brno, located in the Sázava River valley.

Originally a mechanical iron forge founded by Cistercian monks, it processed local iron ore. Later, it was converted into a grain mill, operating until World War II. Today, Šlakhamr features an exhibition on ironworking, woodworking, and life under its last owners. A key highlight is the fully functional hammering equipment.

NATURE

When exploring Vysočina, you will wander through the Žďárské Vrchy Protected Landscape Area or along the Svatka River valley, where rocks and other natural wonders await.

Many rock formations are popular with climbers, but most viewpoints are accessible without special equipment. Enjoy the view from Devět Skal, the highest peak of the Žďárské Vrchy. Other scenic spots include Čtyři Palice, Malinská Skála, Prosička, Hraběcí Stolek, and Milovské Perničky. Unique nature also exists in the Žákova hora and Dářská Rašeliniště reserves.

22. HOUSE OF NATURE

The Žďárské Vrchy House of Nature welcomes curious tourists and nature lovers who want more than just walks and scenic views.

Housed in a 19th-century farmhouse, the 21st-century interactive exhibition takes you through the Žďárské Vrchy from ancient times, when bears and wolves roamed the border forests, to the present day. Visitors are encouraged to explore and experience the exhibits with all their senses.

23. ROCK DEVĚT SKAL

At 836 metres, Devět skal is the highest peak of the Žďárské Vrchy and the second highest in Vysočina.

The name comes from nine rock formations scattered within a one-kilometre area, forming a small rock labyrinth. The viewpoint offers nearly 360° views over the upper Svatka valley and the forests along the main ridge of the Žďárské Vrchy. The summit can be reached from Křižánky, or the car park below Lisovská skála.

24. ROCK ČTYŘI PALICE

Beauty is all around us, and sometimes all it takes is a walk into nature. One such place is Čtyři Palice.

The four massive rock blocks Paličatá, Děvín, Tvrz and Opomenutá formed through frost weathering during the Quaternary. The summit features four prominent blocks, known locally as "palice." The rock stretches 50 m in length with walls up to 33 m high. The reward for climbing is the view over the Svatka River valley.

26. ROCK MALINSKÁ SKÁLA

A stunning view over the Svatka River valley and Devět Skal awaits at the top of Malinská Skála.

Malinská Skála is a prominent rocky peak, 811 m high, located on the ridge stretching from Devět Skal to nearby Drátenická Skála. The rocks reach up to 20 m in height and include Výspa, Srnčí věž, Škuner, and Buldok. The peak is easily accessible via the red tourist trail from rock Drátenická Skála or rock Lisovská Skála.

28. HRABĚCÍ STOLEK VIEWPOINT

Stop at the rocky viewpoint above the Svatka River meander and enjoy one of the valley's most beautiful views.

Hraběcí Stolek offers a unique view of the Vír II reservoir and the opposite slope with the remains of Pyšolec Castle. The site recalls the former wooden lookout that stood here until 1930. Today, the viewpoint is a popular destination for hikers and, with its new gazebo, an ideal spot to rest amid the enchanting landscape.

29. FOREST IN ŽÁKOVA HORA

The Žákova Hora National Nature Reserve is one of the oldest and most valuable protected areas in Vysočina.

It offers a rare example of the natural development of the mixed forests of the Žďárské Vrchy. Fifty-five bird species nest here, and the reserve hosts the largest deer population in the region. A three-kilometre educational trail with ten stops circles the reserve, showcasing the beauty and highlights of this remarkable site.
